THREE KILLED IN RACE WITH DEATH STATE PROBE IN FILIPINO RACE RIOTING STARTED

'ROUND 'N' 'ROUND

Now we are told by an authority at the University of California that dandelions are a good thing to have in your lawn because they attract the birds. If that is the case we prefer doing without the dandelions and birds both.

Wednesday night's robbery of a Chinese by three of his countrymen is one of the oddities of the day. Not that Chinese, like other nationalities have some who are not adverse to crime to make a living, but because it is seldom that one Chinese will rob another. But then the bandits were reported to be young. Maybe they were not well versed in tradition.

Yes, beginning tomorrow, those little black and yellow plates that sold for $3 for several months will advance to $6. The bargain sale is about over.

This tempest in a teapot now in progress at Washington about the prohibition law looks to us just like a little campaigning for the coming election. Oh well, boys, whoop it up. It makes good copy for those who still fall for it.

Oakland is having a nice battle over its paving. And when it's all over wonder what we'll have?

You can now cross the bay in an airplane which takes only a small fraction of the time required by the heavy, cumbersome ferries. The time may come when we will all cross on bridges.

So far the naval conference in London hasn't accomplished a single thing. The best indication of progress made there is the request by delegates that no publicity be given their activities. Usually when a person doesn't want publicity about his activities it is because he is ashamed of them.

Chicago is still "bankrupt." Press reports inform us that 4000 odd county employees again failed to get their pay checks. Maybe some of the boys and girls will get together and take over the city hall and sell it at a foreclosure sale. There would probably be plenty of buyers.

"All" of the traffic squad may go to Sacramento to appear before Gov. C. C. Young on that day and receive new motorcycles and uniforms—and then again, they may not. That may be only a ruse to pick up a little business.

As far as we are concerned we expect to drive the straight and narrow and observe stop signs as well as ever.

Tuesday may be open season for those motorists who like to disobey the law and then again it may not.

Social Ambition Cited in Suit For Heart Balm

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 30.—UP.—A story of a wife's social ambition and extravagance that drove a husband to love for another woman was recited in superior court here today by Samuel S. Hutchinson, wealthy Chicago film distributor.

"My wife was bleeding me while keeping me continually on the grindstone," he said of Mrs. Mattie Dean Hutchinson, who is suing Mrs. Edith H. Taylor for $300,000, charging alienation of the husband's affections.

Hutchinson caused a stir in the courtroom as he spoke in support of the woman he could not marry after she bore him a child 15 years ago. He said that he sought her and it was not she who stole his affections as his wife charges.

HAYWARD HI. OUT OF LOOP

Richmond Union high school is definitely out of the Alameda County Athletic League and the C. I. F.

This was the decision of the board of directors of the league at a session in Alameda yesterday. Richmond's suspension from the league comes as a climax to its first game in the loop with Hayward several weeks ago when it was charged that four "rooters" for the local school stole four light globes from the Hayward school. The four persons responsible for the theft were not pupils of the local school and were not in any way connected with it. They repaid all damages.

However, the iron bound rules of the league declare that schools are responsible for any act of vandalism committed by its sympathizers.

At the same time that the Richmond high school was suspended, Hayward high school was also dropped from the league, following a complaint from Centerville high school that its swimming tank was smeared with paint by Hayward high school rooters.

A third school is being investigated for alleged vandalism, the league directors stated.

Ivan W. Hill, local school coach and Bert K. Tucker, principal of the school attended the league meeting.

Tucker refused to comment upon the decision of the league directors yesterday.

Game Off

A game was scheduled between the local school and Piedmont high school cagers today at the local school. This game will probably not be played.

Tucker stated that games will be arranged between other schools that are not members of the league, as was done in the past when Richmond was not a member of the league.

Whether Richmond will be reinstated in the league is up to the board of directors, Tucker stated yesterday. He refused to comment upon the chances of the local school being reinstated.

POLICE FIND 2 LOST TOTS

Two Richmond children were returned to their homes yesterday by Richmond police.

Early last night the Key System Transit company reported that a lost child had been found on one of its street cars here. The baby said that her name was "Chambers."

Police immediately investigated and found that the child was the daughter of Mrs. Laura Chambers, 644 Fourth street. According to Mrs. Chambers she had taken the child on the street car with her and thought that she had got off of it with her.

Mrs. M. Milinda, 331 Seventh street, reported to police that her two-year-old son Mickey was lost. He was found at Sixth street and Macdonald avenue by Richmond police and was returned to his home.

'Black Tony' Denied Bail

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—UP.—Bail was denied "Black Tony" Parmaghi and William Levin in federal court here today. The men, asserted Pacific Coast representatives of the late Arnold Rothstein, are planning to appeal sentences of 17 years in prison for violation of narcotic laws and wanted freedom until a decision is made.

MOTHER IN THEFT NET FOLLOWING SON'S ARREST

The long arm of the law reached out yesterday and took into custody the mother of a 15 year old Richmond boy who on Wednesday according to police confessed to the theft of $200.

After being arrested on a petty theft warrant sworn to by John Fiorini, 211 Pacific street, Mrs. Vienna Bono, 501 Ocean avenue, was released on a $500 property bond set by Justice of the Peace A. A. Alstrom.

According to police records Fiorini missed the $200 from a desk drawer when he returned from work Wednesday night. A chance remark dropped by a classmate resulted in the arrest of a 15 year old high school boy who according to police records admitted that he had taken the $200. The youth the records show said that he put $150 in a savings account in a local bank, gave $20 of the remainder to his mother and spent the remainder in buying a wrist watch, sweater and other articles.

According to the story told to authorities by the mother the boy had told her that he had earned the money but that she was suspicious and had intended calling the police but had neglected to do so.

The youth who also faces a petty theft charge was released by Judge Alstrom yesterday after spending the night in the city jail, until such time that the case is brought to trial.

ONE KILLED IN OIL EXPLOSION

KETTLEMAN HILLS, Jan. 30.—(UP)—Five men were injured here today while endeavoring to recover the body of a fellow worker who had sacrificed his life in an effort to save others.

Charles L. Phillips of Los Angeles was killed by an explosion that destroyed the $500,000 absorption plant of the company taking gas from a new well.

Five men who tried to bring his body out of the wrecked plant before flames reached it were slightly hurt by another blast.

Phillips, an oiler, first saw the menacing blaze. He told a man working with him to run to safety and then tried to turn off gas lines running from large absorption tanks to 12,000 gallon storage tanks that were nearly filled with gasoline.

Before he could accomplish the work, one of the tanks exploded with a flash that could be seen 20 miles away and the ground shook. Phillips was killed.

The rescuers crawled after the body of Phillips then, but were repulsed when they were hurt by a second explosion. The other two tanks were detonated at half hour intervals after a second crew of workers had brought Phillips' body out of the wreckage.

Alberta Rusich Named Leader Of Junior Hi-Y

Alberta Rusich was chosen president of the Junior Girls' Hi-Y yesterday, with Florence Seivers elected as vice-president of the club. June Abbey was chosen to occupy the position of secretary, and Claire Permand was elected treasurer.

The girls yesterday started work on "hobby books." These note books are planned to contain material dealing with topics in which the girls are interested. Books have already been started on the topics of art, gymnastics, stamp, and poetry.

The club is under the direction of Dorothy Armstrong and Dorothy Hall.

4 COUNTIES SEEK HALT OF RIOTS

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—(UP)—While authorities of four counties guarded against fresh outbreaks, Gov. C. C. Young promised tonight an official investigation into the cause of race riots between Filipino and white laborers.

Recognizing the seriousness of the fighting, the government urged calmness, denounced the riots and expressed faith in the "common sense of the majority of the people of California."

A commission of three, the governor intimated, may be appointed to study the cause of the clashes between the islanders at Watsonville, San Jose, Stockton and Eureka.

The rioting started several months ago when a group of white working men stormed a camp of Filipinos who were camped in the San Joaquin valley near Eureka, where they were working in the fruit fields.

One Killed

Two weeks ago the bitter racial feeling flamed again at Watsonville, the population center of the rich Pajaro valley. Three dozens of men were injured and one Filipino was shot to death.

San Jose was the scene of the next fight and there a white youth was stabbed in the back.

Renewal of the rioting came this week at Stockton, one of the largest Filipino centers in California, where a Filipino club was dynamited and the lives of a score of persons endangered.

Authorities tonight were nervous, wondering where the next riot would occur and taking extraordinary precautions in all the places where there is a Filipino center.

Calmness Asked

WOMAN HELD IN GEM THEFT

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—UP.—A seven months investigation of a $17,000 jewelry robbery was brought to an end tonight with the arrest of Mrs. Mattie Wells, 40 Bakersfield court.

She was arrested when she offered to return more than half of the stolen gems to the insurance company which covered their loss. She wanted $3500 for their return.

When she went to the insurance company office she took with her a box containing $10,000 worth of the jewels stolen from the home of Lloyd Dinkelspiel San Francisco attorney, last June.

Police believed she was only the tool employed by the ring that committed the robbery and hoped to learn the identity of the others through her.

Great Western Builds New Line

MARTINEZ, Jan. 30.—As part of an immense 1930 program planned by the Great Western Power company, reconstruction and installation of new lines over more than 20 miles of central Contra Costa county territory was started this week.

Construction of lines from Clayton station to the Shiloh company in Martinez, and a line to Lafayette from Clayton station, are included in the program.

METHOD OF PROCEDURE SOUGHT IN NAVY MEET

LONDON, Jan. 30.—UP.—At American suggestion the five powers decided today to seek a French proposed compromise on the manner of limiting fleets. But the Italians served notice they would not accept the compromise until maximum tonnages had been fixed and naval ratios decided — in other words, until the Franco-Italian parity question was out of the way.

All of which is to say that at the end of 10 days of deliberations, capped by a third plenary session today, the delegates were still groping toward a method of procedure.

Here is what happened in Queen Anne's drawing room of St. James' palace, with the press attending.

Americans Willing

The Americans, though desiring to divide fleets into categories and limit strictly within each category, said they were willing to discuss the French plan permitting a tonnage switch from one category to another on due notice.

The British said they were willing, too, provided the shifts were limited to the smaller classes of warships.

BODY OF GIRL FOUND IN BAY

MONTEREY, Jan. 30.—UP.—Finding of the body of Henrietta Vierra 15, floating in the water off Pacific Coast beach today gave police to investigate the possibility of foul play.

The girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Vierra disappeared from her home yesterday afternoon. Her body was found floating face downward.

Police say this is unusual. The body would not have been floating face downward unless it was placed that way in the water after the person was dead it was claimed.

The parents were unable to assist the police in clearing up the mystery. The girl they said, had no boy friend in particular and did not seem worried when she left home.

CARQUEZ ARRIVALS

Arrivals at the Hotel Carqueze yesterday included: E. L. Newton and James H. Haynie of Fresno, and A. E. Dobbs of Bakersfield.

YESTERDAY IN CONGRESS

2 DIE; 14 HURT IN CHICAGO GANG WAR

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—(UP)—Gangster bullets whined here today while gangster bombs provided a booming obligato in another of Chicago's periodic crime concerts.

When the leaders pocketed their baton, or rather their sub-machine guns and their extra supply of bombs, when the smoke cleared away and frightened citizens ventured forth on the streets again, two men lay dead, another critically wounded, and 13 more injured.

It was as if the city's gangsters had celebrated the St. Valentine's day massacre two weeks early, or even had a pre-coming-out party for the super-gangster, Al Capone, scheduled to be released from jail in Philadelphia in March.

Taxi Man Slain

Most prominent of those killed was Barney J. Mitchell, treasurer of the Checker Taxicab company.

He was riding in one of his Rogers Park district when a large blue sedan came abreast. The blue car careened close to the taxicab, and with brakes screeching, forced it to the curb. Sub-machine guns appeared at the windows of the sedan.

They split lead for several minutes into the taxicab and then the sedan raced away. Mitchell's body, with eight bullet holes in it, was found sprawled on the rear seat. The body of his driver, George Jackson, was slumped over the steering wheel with two bullets in the head.

Taxicab War

Police attributed the shooting to minor gangsters hired during a recent bloody taxicab war to guard the Checker machines. When the war finally was settled, the Checker company discharged its hoodlum guards and thereby made them angry. The murders today were believed to be their reprisal.

While one group of murderers was following the taxicab, another put Johnny Genaro, all-star bomb tosser, machine gun man (Continued on Page 8)

MAN ROBBED IN L. A. JAIL

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 30.—UP.—Boy, page the late Mr. Houdini! A prisoner has lost his bankroll in the city jail.

Bert Castellano admittedly took on a few too many drinks Tuesday night. So did his pal, Edward Rossum. Police escorted them both to the town jail.

The pair were searched. Castellano had $106 in cash, a $10 check, a cigar lighter and a bill fold. Rossum had $10. Today, Rossum had his $10 when they were released, but Castellano had nothing.

"It's a deep, deep mystery," said Capt. John D. Hubbs. "When I catch the guy that did it he's gonna get a penitentiary ticket."

All officers at the station expressed innocence.

HIT RUNNER FINED $200

Pleading guilty to a charge of hit and run, a misdemeanor charge George P. Donaldson of Filbert street, north Richmond, was fined $200 and was given a suspended sentence of 90 days in the county jail by Police Judge C. A. Ode's last night.

Donaldson was arrested by Richmond police Wednesday night following a collision at Pulman avenue and Cutting boulevard. Donaldson's car struck a car owned by Joe Arruda, of San Pedro and then struck Arruda, according to police reports.

Donaldson failed to stop after the crash. Mrs. Arruda, who was with her husband at the time of the crash, took Donaldson's license number and called police.

Five minutes after the crash the driver was arrested at Twenty-third street and Macdonald avenue by Sgt. John Kinsley of the local police department.

The commission cited Alexander Bevan, president of the company, and Mrs. Hector Geiger of Los Angeles, its chief backer, to appear at a hearing Friday morning.

The few stars present at the commission, some of whom reside in San Francisco, asserted that Mrs. Geiger offered to transport the Italian and Los Angeles singers back to Los Angeles and give them a week's salary, but made no provision for those living here.

Guests of the hotel were surprised at 8 a. m. to see the leading players of the grand opera company in the lobby, talking loudly and gesticulating wildly. Their session lasted until noon.

Among the stars were Myrna Sharlow, Louise Caselotti, Nina Piccaluga, Leotta Castello and Galileo Parigi.

U. S. Official Resigns Post

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—UP.—United States Commissioner James R. Glass, who has been in office for the last nine years, announced today that he would retire to take up private practice of law.

FOURTH MAN HURT IN CRASH

SANTA MARIA, Jan. 30.—(UP)—A race to the bedside of an injured daughter today cost the father his life as well as the lives of two companions.

The dead: W. L. Judd. J. W. Chenoweth. Charles Spencer, all of Santa Maria.

The trio left here after Spencer received word that his daughter had been hurt in a stage accident near Harrier, Ore. Their car struck a machine driven by Ralph Henderson, 25, San Francisco salesman.

Judd died a few hours after the accident, but his companions were killed instantly.

Henderson received a broken leg and was seriously bruised.

The trio were en route to San Luis Obispo to attempt to catch the northbound stage.

While rounding a curve near Arroya Grande, they collided head on with Henderson's car while traveling at a high rate of speed. Both cars were practically demolished when they crashed.

Henderson was thrown through the windshield of his car, but escaped with a broken leg and severe cuts on the face and body. He was taken to the hospital here for treatment. According to his wife, he had left San Francisco for Los Angeles on business Wednesday afternoon.

The three dead men were employed on the Rosemary ranch, owned by Capt. G. Allen Hancock of Los Angeles.

OPERA PLAYERS DEMAND WAGES

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—(UP)—Shrill demands took the place of grand opera's soft notes here today as singers and musicians of the Columbia Grand Opera company stormed offices of the state labor commission.

Disgruntled prima donnas, a few of them from Italy, had been first to protest the closing of their show here Monday when only seven weeks of their asserted 20-week contracts had been completed. They assembled in the lobby of the Sir Francis Drake hotel until the management induced them to adjourn to a private conference room.

Late in the afternoon the complaints of 35 members of the chorus, most of the 20 musicians and a few stars were given to the labor commission.

The commission cited Alexander Bevan, president of the company, and Mrs. Hector Geiger of Los Angeles, its chief backer, to appear at a hearing Friday morning.

The few stars present at the commission, some of whom reside in San Francisco, asserted that Mrs. Geiger offered to transport the Italian and Los Angeles singers back to Los Angeles and give them a week's salary, but made no provision for those living here.

Guests of the hotel were surprised at 8 a. m. to see the leading players of the grand opera company in the lobby, talking loudly and gesticulating wildly. Their session lasted until noon.

CINDERELLA'S GODMOTHER SPEAKS

Cinderella, here's your gown.
Hurry, now, or you'll be late!
Put your buckled slippers on—
Stamping horses will not wait.
He who wears a Prince's crown
Dances, blissfully unaware
Of the sparkle in your eyes,
Or the spun-gold in your hair.
Would you have him never know
All the beauty of your face,
All the music in your voice—
All your young and lovely grace?
Cinderella, time is short.
Hurry, now, or you'll be late!
Stamping horses must be off.
Princes very seldom wait.

Past the witching hour of twelve.
Other arms may hold him tight—
Cinderella, would you lose
Such a Prince's heart to-night?

GATES HEBBARD.

When Chivalry Really Chival!

FROM long, hard-earned experience, most women learn to be exceedingly wary and suspicious of chivalry.

It usually means, a woman finds that a man will be nice to her. About all the things that don't really matter—

Such as opening the door, picking up her handkerchief, giving her a seat in the subway—

And that the same man will consider that his "chivalry" gets him out from dealing snipe-guns to a woman on some question that is important—

Such as paying her as much as he'd pay a man for the same work.

Or promoting her as promptly as he would promote a man.

Or admitting that she has the logical best of the argument.

The chivalrous man invariably tries to hide his argument by the defeat.

By saying, blandly, "There, there, little girl, we won't talk any more about it!"

But, lo and behold, at last there has been discovered

A chivalry that really chival—
That literally allows woman to get away with murder—

Or with her best friend's husband, or the spouse, or any other little thing.

We are referring to the perfectly grand law, as applied to women.

Whereas the only and the only part of the statutes of the State of Wisconsin.

Here follows this purest flower of legal chivalry, as it blooms in Wisconsin's second of Ordinances.

"No female shall be arrested, in any action

"Except for a willful injury to person, character or property."

Judge Calvin Stewart of Kenosha, Wis., has just made use of this priceless law.

To set Mrs. Antonia Maggini, who had driven through a fire line

And who thus was liable to a fine or imprisonment.

But, quoth the Judge, once in Wisconsin there were "real men."

"Who made laws that really protected women."

Then he set up, and applied the very perfect statute piece of chivalry above quoted.

And, girls, don't you see how, if we only had such a law in New York, it would let us out, no matter what we did?

We would only have to deny that we had committed a WILLFUL injury—
We didn't mean to shoot up our husband—
We were aiming at the lamp-post, just to see if we could shoot straight—
We were not willfully injuring our next door neighbor by clapping with her spouse—
We thought that he didn't understand her—
And, last, she'd better off without him—
As for the spouse, we just borrowed them for a tea-party—
Or, of course, we were not a willful talent! Nobody could ever arrest any one of us. For anything we did with a car that we ought not to have done—
For we wouldn't mean to do it!

Helping the School Child

By Emilie Hoffman

Copyright Press Publishing Company (New York World) 1930

IF YOU are a careful and cautious mother you are co-operating with the schools in training your children in habits that will minimize the danger of contagion from preventable communicable diseases.

How about others? Are you protecting them by strict compliance with quarantine regulations, and are you teaching your children to consider the health of others and training them to co-operative in the practice of health habits that affect others?

School officials, health authorities and physicians may work conscientiously to control communicable diseases, but it requires parental co-operation to do this successfully.

The mother is a potent factor in the health of the community. If every mother knew and strictly enforced the community health laws in her family, the health reports would tell a different story.

In your anxiety for your own child, don't you have instructed them to turn the face away from a person who coughs or sneezes. Have you impressed them that it is quite as important that they should cover their mouths and noses in coughing and sneezing as a precaution to others?

Do you provide your child with a clean handkerchief each day?

Your little daughter has a slight run-

The World's Window

By Pierre Van Paassen

Antiquated

PARIS, January.

A Communist was arrested in Paris who carried in his pocket a plan of the barricade of the Revolution of 1833.

First this was thought highly significant, and many bourgeois began to tremble in their shoes. Yet upon a little quiet meditation one must wonder what there is to worry about in such an incident.

Any one only slightly familiar with the revolutionary history of Paris must know that the revolts and the uprisings always broke out in that labyrinth of alleys and passages around the City Hall.

Hausmann cleared all this up. And of what use are barricades in our time and generation? Asphalt covers most of the streets, so where are the cobblestones to come from? No crowd of men, however powerful, could upset a bus, as they used to do in 1848 and 1871.

Moreover, the forces of law and order dispose of entirely novel means to quell revolutions, for instance, and armored cars and tanks, not to speak of various kinds of gas. The plan of 1833 that the young man carried, and that he had copied from historical documents in the National Library, is one of no earthly use, except as a romantic piece of ideology.

Moreover, and this is the most important, the workers of Paris are not now in the state of desperation and misery that they were in 1833 or 1848, when they felt like staking all in a sublime storm-run, come what might.

There is a great deal of progress to be made yet, no doubt, but nothing justifies acts of desperation these days.

On the other hand, and not merely a section of the population.

At midnight, on Christmas Eve, we ascended the Eiffel Tower. The invitation of the Post and Telegraphs Minister, who was going to let us listen to what came over to the most powerful radio receiving set in Western Europe. At our feet lay that mysterious agglomeration that is Paris, like an inverted cone of heaven, blazing with a million glittering lights. The same a silver Milky Way.

The first sounds that came over the ether were the swelling tones of an organ, followed by a choir, midnight mass in Warsaw Cathedral.

The operator turned a switch on the intricate machinery and it was Barcelona that sent, over the hilarious zither and handclapping of a cabaret.

Plop, plop, came the sound of champagne bottles being uncorked. Another turn of the knob and Moscow was on, with the broadcaster, speaking perfect French, prophesying the coming of a better time for the "Roses of France, once they got rid of the masters riding on their backs."

A second later it was Westminster Abbey and a priest reciting the "Agnus Dei." When the wicked man turned away from his wickedness," followed by the high-pitched voices of the boy choir, "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing!"

We switched off and got Hulzen in Holland with a solemn, awe-inspiring Bach-like choral, and then suddenly again Antwerp came through with what seemed some gargantuan creature in a fit of laughter, raucous voices and the sound of bottles.

All at once a voice spoke in "Tis van te klinken den bevaert" (time to clink glasses). When we climbed down from the tower we had an inordinate thirst.

On the other hand, the lady who is all "figure" goes in for clothes that will attract attention to her lines—high lighted fabrics, vivid colors, tricky designs that emphasize the best features of her modeling. Need we say that she exercises most intelligently, most faithfully, and that when it comes to diet she is positively tricky.

All of which, Oh, Sisters, comes just so many valuable hints to you.

A little self-study and you shouldn't find it difficult deciding to which type you belong—without asking your best friend to tell you. Of course if you can't decide whether your figure is more attractive than your face and head, then you are altogether a perfect beauty and really have no problems of any sort.

One of the mistakes commonly made by women with a few markedly good features and a few that are markedly indifferent or bad is this: the bad or indifferent features are neglected altogether and the good ones emphasized to the point where much suffers by contrast.

Obviously no permanent good can come of cultivating a face at the expense of a figure, and no permanent charm from "topping off" a stunning torso with a neglected face. After all, harmony is the wisest goal to strive for. Better a charming tout ensemble any figure than perfection in one feature and we think you will agree with us.

Those "head" women that we spoke of earlier in this article wear dresses of black and neutral tones to throw their heads and faces into relief. This is art. But those dresses of black, beige, and gray or dark rutilate blue are beautifully made and beautifully worn on figures which are as beautiful as possible.

In a word, the art of spotlighting one's good points is the art simply of emphasis rightly placed. And it comes with taste, with study, with practice. If you would be delightfully distinctive.

Basket Weaves

The familiar basket weaves will appear with frequency in sports and semi-sports wear for spring. Lelong in particular considers this type of woven very smart. In fine weaves it is used in all the new colors for dresses, while it appears in heavier weights for suits and coats.

The first sounds that came over the ether were the swelling tones of an organ, followed by a choir, midnight mass in Warsaw Cathedral.

The operator turned a switch on the intricate machinery and it was Barcelona that sent, over the hilarious zither and handclapping of a cabaret.

Plop, plop, came the sound of champagne bottles being uncorked. Another turn of the knob and Moscow was on, with the broadcaster, speaking perfect French, prophesying the coming of a better time for the "Roses of France, once they got rid of the masters riding on their backs."

A second later it was Westminster Abbey and a priest reciting the "Agnus Dei." When the wicked man turned away from his wickedness," followed by the high-pitched voices of the boy choir, "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing!"

We switched off and got Hulzen in Holland with a solemn, awe-inspiring Bach-like choral, and then suddenly again Antwerp came through with what seemed some gargantuan creature in a fit of laughter, raucous voices and the sound of bottles.

All at once a voice spoke in "Tis van te klinken den bevaert" (time to clink glasses). When we climbed down from the tower we had an inordinate thirst.

On the other hand, the lady who is all "figure" goes in for clothes that will attract attention to her lines—high lighted fabrics, vivid colors, tricky designs that emphasize the best features of her modeling. Need we say that she exercises most intelligently, most faithfully, and that when it comes to diet she is positively tricky.

All of which, Oh, Sisters, comes just so many valuable hints to you.

A little self-study and you shouldn't find it difficult deciding to which type you belong—without asking your best friend to tell you. Of course if you can't decide whether your figure is more attractive than your face and head, then you are altogether a perfect beauty and really have no problems of any sort.

One of the mistakes commonly made by women with a few markedly good features and a few that are markedly indifferent or bad is this: the bad or indifferent features are neglected altogether and the good ones emphasized to the point where much suffers by contrast.

Obviously no permanent good can come of cultivating a face at the expense of a figure, and no permanent charm from "topping off" a stunning torso with a neglected face. After all, harmony is the wisest goal to strive for. Better a charming tout ensemble any figure than perfection in one feature and we think you will agree with us.

Those "head" women that we spoke of earlier in this article wear dresses of black and neutral tones to throw their heads and faces into relief. This is art. But those dresses of black, beige, and gray or dark rutilate blue are beautifully made and beautifully worn on figures which are as beautiful as possible.

In a word, the art of spotlighting one's good points is the art simply of emphasis rightly placed. And it comes with taste, with study, with practice. If you would be delightfully distinctive.

Basket Weaves

The familiar basket weaves will appear with frequency in sports and semi-sports wear for spring. Lelong in particular considers this type of woven very smart. In fine weaves it is used in all the new colors for dresses, while it appears in heavier weights for suits and coats.

Simple Home Acrobatics Suggested By Lillian Roth

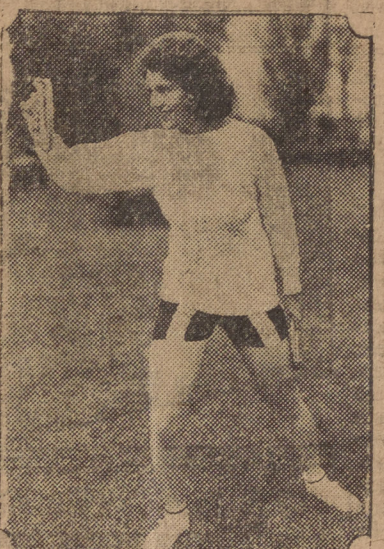

1. The low hurdle offers one of the most fascinating forms of exercise. It is an inexpensive item and requires but small space in fact, the average backyard is large enough to create a home-made track for the hurdle jumps.

2. You might skin your shins once or twice before clearing the top, but the reward comes when you can go over with ease and grace. The running necessary to clear the bar is a remarkable weight stabilizer.

3. The old fashioned jumping rope keeps me one jump ahead of the overweight body. Do not try this exercise strenuously at first, but gradually increase the number of jumps each day until the total covers a space of five minutes.

4. Pitching horse shoes is the chief pastime of the village sportsman, but it affords an interesting exercise that is a beauty aid as well. Arms, shoulders, chest and waist receive generous benefits from the horse shoe game.

5. I have always envied the circus acrobats. With the aid of a board or pillow and a handy tree trunk I have accomplished the feat of standing on my head and have discovered that it is a top notch exercise for the waistline.

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping."

Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless, and works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every druggist has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine.

2 Executed At Sing Sing

OSSENG, N. Y., Jan. 30.—UP—Frank Plaia and Michael Scalfoni were executed at Sing Sing prison tonight for the murder of Soro Graziano and his wife Mary.

Plaia and Scalfoni went to the electric chair denouncing each other bitterly. Each claimed the other was the murderer. Plaia died first. Scalfoni followed him seven minutes later.

Plaia made two attempts today to commit suicide. He threw a book through the bars of his cell shattering an electric light bulb in the corridor. He was reaching for the shattered glass on the floor when guards swept it beyond his reach. Later Plaia attempted to start a fire in his cell by tossing a burning cigarette into the clothing of a chair. This move also was seen by guards who prevented the blaze.

Joan Crawford's Brother Divorced

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 30.—UP—Joan Crawford's brother, Hal Hays La Scur, obtained a divorce today from the wife he charged went "completely Hollywood."

He said that the wife, Jesse Le Sueur, actress, insisted that they maintain separate apartments and meet only by appointment. La Scur told the court he was tired of "companionate marriage."

Rocco Balcastro breathed a huge sigh of relief when Chicago detectives placed him in city jail.

COMPROMISE IN NAVAL MEET SOUGHT

moved for appointment of an inter-delegation committee to study the plan and possibly draw up a skeleton program. The motion was adopted.

Items of agenda
The committee, in effect, was to be handed the following items of agenda and told to find a way out if possible.

The French original proposal to set a single total tonnage limit for each fleet, and the compromise proposal to limit by categories but allow some degree of switch. Under the compromise, for instance, France might scrap a 25,000-ton battleship and use the tonnage in building five 5000-ton cruisers.

The French proposal to divide fleets into categories and define each category as to size of ships and guns.

The French proposal to determine how much of a transfer from one category to another would be allowed, and how.

The British original proposal to limit strictly by categories. Japan and the United States favored this proposal also.

Compromise Sought
Stimson proposed that the members of the committee report thru their own delegations, and that meantime the delegations continue working toward a compromise as well.

No objections were raised, but Foreign Minister Dini Grandi served notice Italy would accept no final solution of the problem until her own two pet projects were settled first. These were:

Setting of maximum total tonnage for all fleets.
Fixing of ratios. In other words, Grandi had a mandate from Premier Mussolini to insist on a navy as great as France's and he was not going to consent to limit by categories or in any other way until the question of Franco-Italian parity was determined.

Sabotage Denied
The plenary meeting adjourned after 1 hour and 24 minutes. The French were jubilant at acceptance of their compromise plan in principle. The Italians were steadfast for parity with France while denying they had tried to "sabotage" the conference.

Then, shortly after these appointments were made, a British spokesman announced that the committee wouldn't meet at once or have anything to do. There had been a sudden change in plans, he said, and the work of compromise, assigned to the committee would be handled instead by the committee of the whole composed of all the delegates. He gave no reasons for this shift back to where the conference had started from.

RELEASE FOR PANTAGES DENIED

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—The family of Alexander Pantages was severely rebuked for asserted attempts to influence the opinion of Superior Judge Charles W. Fricke in the court's decision today denying temporary release on bond to the convicted showman.

Judge Fricke said that after Pantages had been convicted of attacking 17-year old Eunice Pringle, he received a letter from his wife, Mrs. Lois Pantages, asking mercy.

"I have destroyed that letter," the court said, "but I recall that it said that 'Mr. Pantages is a very sick man,' and asked me to consider the position of a woman who is ill herself and needs a husband to care for his sick wife and other members of the family."

Mrs. Pantages, herself convicted of manslaughter in the death of Juro Rokomuto, Japanese, was granted parole after making a cash settlement with the dead man's family.

Judge Fricke's decision today supported a similar ruling on Dec. 27 that Pantages' life would not be imperiled by continued confinement in the county jail pending decision on his appeal from the Pringle conviction.

The court pointed out today that he had noted a discrepancy in the history of Pantages' illness, as detailed by Dr. E. C. Fishbaugh, personal physician of the showman.

"At one point in the defendant's history, it was stated that his tonsils had been removed years ago," Judge Fricke said. "But, later, we read that he is now suffering from chronic tonsillitis. A report also said his every meal in the county jail was forced, leaving erroneously the impression that forced feeding was used."

Pantages is under sentence of from one to 50 years in San Quentin prison. Briefs in support of his appeal will be filed on Feb. 25.

GARFINKLES CAGERS TAKE FIRST FROM MAMMY'S

B TITILISTS THREATEN VICTORS

A 32 to 22 victory was gained by Garfinkle's quintet over the Mammy's Place cagers last night in the first of a series of three playoffs for the championship of the Richmond city league.

In spite of the uneven final score, the outlook appeared none too bright for the A division champions during almost the entire game. After fighting an uphill battle through the first half, Mammy's Place succeeded in tying the score at 19 by the end of the third quarter. Then the lighter B division champions seemed to tire, and the Clouthiers battered down the Mammy defense with fatal results.

Gillan started the winners by reaping 12 counters, while a peppy little fellow by the name of Marcos carried the honors for the losers by gathering nine points.

Charlie Cecil, manager of the Mammy's Place team, highly commended the Garfinkles' team for its playing, declaring that the better team won.

The Oleum girls were swamped by a score of 22 to 8 at the hands of the Petaluma girl's squad in a preliminary game. Oleum held its own until the last half, when the Petaluma squad started a swift raid into Oleum territory.

A game played by three teams furnished something unique to the fans that packed the gymnasium last night. Because of the non-arrival of the Brunner's athletes, several Aristo cagers accompanying the Oleum squad offered to substitute as opposition to Oleum. Oleum defeated them 5 to 4 in a game of two quarters. The Oaklanders then arrived, and Oleum edged the game with Oleum. Oleum was again victorious, defeating the furniture men 13 to 2.

The second playoff between Garfinkle's and Mammy's Place will be played in the Richmond Union high school gymnasium Monday night at 7:30 o'clock. The Oleum squad will tangle with the City of Hayward five at 8:30 and this contest will be followed by a clash between the Oleum girls and the Richmond Y.

First Game
Garfinkle's 32—Gillan 2, Barbieri forwards; Flynn 5, center; G. Gordon, Millicovich 6, guards; substitutes W. Gordon, forward; Lee 3. Mammy's Place 22—Marcos 9, Page 5, forwards; Arnold 7, center; Weeks 1, O'Connell guards; substitutes Sassore, Correa, forwards; Oishi, guard.

Second Game

Bear Icemen Fly To Hockey Game In Los Angeles

BERKELEY, Jan. 30.—Twelve University of California ice hockey players, their coach and manager, will board a Maddux airliner Friday morning at the Alameda Airport to fly to Los Angeles on their way to meet the Southern California puck-chasers Saturday morning in their first intercollegiate competition of the season.

The meet is scheduled for Big Pines—the Los Angeles county playground—in the San Bernardino mountains, with the junior chamber of commerce of the southern city acting as sponsors. The game will be played on natural ice.

Never before has a University of California athletic team used the airplane for transportation to or from a contest. The Bears will fly both ways, using the automobile for transportation to and from the mountains after they reach the Glendale airport. They will leave the south Sunday, arriving at the eastbay field in the late afternoon.

Men making the trip are: Captain Jack Fingland, center; forwards: Donald Murphy, John Ennis, Herbert Ellis, James Sheridan and Benjamin Hamilton; defense: Fred Taber, George Watkins, Chas. Gallagher and Charles Jaeger; goal tenders: Ed Griffiths and Douglas Morrison.

Lieutenant H. K. Greenlaw coach, will accompany the team, together with George Seager, manager. Lieutenant Greenlaw is a regular army pilot, detailed to the aviation unit of the university's department of military science and tactics. He is a former captain of the West Point hockey team mentioned on eastern All-American selections for that sport.

Suspension Of Barbuti Lifted, To Enter Races

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—UP—Desire of the member clubs of the Metropolitan A. A. U. to have a star gate attraction for the coming indoor track meets, and not a sudden contrition on the part of America's 1928 Olympic hero, was responsible for the reinstatement of Ray Barbuti to good standing as an amateur athlete, the United Press learned today.

Barbuti, whose victory in the 400-meter run at Amsterdam was the only one scored by an American in a flat race at the ninth Olympiad, was suspended last year for making certain pointed and fairly well substantiated remarks about athletes who receive pay although competing as amateurs.

Since his suspension, Barbuti announced his retirement, hung up his spikes and devoted his time to his insurance business.

The lure of competition has brought him back to the track, and he expects to start training and compete this year.

U. C. Crews Bid To Regatta At Poughkeepsie

BERKELEY, Jan. 30.—An invitation to enter the varsity and freshman crews of the University of California in the Poughkeepsie regatta, the annual intercollegiate rowing classic, was received today at the Berkeley Institution by W. W. Monahan, graduate manager of the Associated Students from Maxwell Stevenson, chairman of the Intercollegiate Rowing association.

The regatta is scheduled this year for June 26. Stevenson's letter invited the entry of crews in the freshman two-mile, junior varsity three-mile and varsity four-mile races.

The University of California has entered varsity crews each year since 1926, placing sixth in that year, third the next year and first in 1928. In the stormy race of 1929, the varsity shell was swamped and did not finish. Freshman crews have competed in the last two regattas, and last year took second place.

CARNERA WILL DRAW BIG GALLERY

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—UP—Primo Carnera, for whom nature solved the transportation problems of his native Venice by putting gondolas where his feet should have been, tapered off his training with light exercises today and casually wondered how much time he would require to knock one Elzear Rieux into unconsciousness tomorrow night.

The fight promises to be merely another pushover for Primo, who left his Italian home because he ate so much that he threatened to starve other members of his family to death; and took up the fight game because he'd heard a fellow could make enough money in it to buy all he wanted to eat.

But the great ballyhoo and widespread publicity given Carnera make it appear that for the first time the Chicago stadium will have need for its 23,000 seats. Stadium officials announced tonight that the advance sale already had reached $35,000.

Cantillon was player, manager, scout and umpire for 46 years. He was supervisor of American association arbiters last year.

Matches for which definite dates have been selected are the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate golf association, Election of officers and arrangements for the tournament will be the principle topics of interest at the meeting. SAN LEANDRO, JUNIOR CAGERS BEAT HIGH C TEAM

Jubilant over last week's victory over the San Pablo nine the Thomas Motors will enter the fray with San Leandro Sunday on the first Street lot with bright hopes of victory.

Now standing among the leaders of the Oakland Winter league, the Motors are looking with longing eyes at the not far distant finals. The Motors seem to have benefited by their long layoff because of bad weather, instead of having deteriorated thru lack of practice, as many local baseball enthusiasts fearfully predicted.

A victory will not be easily won Sunday, for the San Leandro boys have handed several of the league leaders decisive defeats. However, after handing a defeat to such a first-class outfit as San Pablo, it ought not to be extremely difficult for the Motors to win Sunday's battle with Hayward.

Hurst will probably start twirling for the Motors, according to L. Thomas, manager of the Thomas Motor aggregation.

The contest will begin at 2:15 o'clock.

Bear Golfers To Enter Matches

BERKELEY, Jan. 29.—Edgar Linthier, Clark Potter and Julian Cahn of the University of California golf team will enter the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate golf tournament at Del Monte on Feb. 6, 7 and 8, it was announced today by Cahn who is captain and manager of the team.

According to a letter received from the tournament committee nearly all of the colleges and universities in California have entered teams. Three flights made up of varsity, freshmen and ineligible and left overs will tee off at Del Monte.

In addition to the tournament, the Del Monte gathering will witness the annual meeting of the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate golf association. Election of officers and arrangements for the tournament will be the principle topics of interest at the meeting. A banquet for the competing golfers will be one of the leading features of the tournament.

Jinx Follows Bear Tracksters

BERKELEY, Jan. 29.—The jinx that pursued the University of California track team last season has already begun to function: Leonard Brown, weightman is the latest victim. Brown fractured a small bone in his throwing wrist while playing "touch football" and will be unable to have the shot or discus for about six weeks. His best mark in the former event is 44 feet 6 inches, and he has tossed the discus 136 feet 8 inches.

SAN LEANDRO, JUNIOR CAGERS BEAT HIGH C TEAM

A big surprise was handed the Richmond Union high school cagers last night when they defeated 14 to 12 by the Longfellow junior high school varsity.

The light but fast Longfellow squad set the pace throughout the game, and it was only during the last quarter that the game came close to being anywhere near even. The junior high school athletes displayed plenty of speed, and astonished their seniors by their smooth working passwork.

Klobas played a sensational game as running guard for Longfellow, and many of the points amassed by the juniors were primarily due to the fine offensive of which Klobas was the key. C. Cervinka, in spite of his small stature, was the "big gun" for the Richmond high outfit gathering six points in spite of the first class defense of the junior high school boys.

The Longfellow Junior high school lineup included: Pickering 2, Topas 2, forwards; Jellch 5, center; McPhee, Klobas 5, guards; substitutes White, Lyhmaski, Joia forwards.

The Richmond Union high school C squad last night consisted of: Hurley 2, Carlin, forwards; Tinker, center; C. Cervinka, 6, Mitchell, guards; substitutes Wakefield 2, Jackson 2, DeCorteen forwards; Oishi guard.

Bear Nine To Play Alumni

BERKELEY, Jan. 30.—Clinton "Clint" Evans will make his debut as head varsity baseball coach at the University of California, next Saturday afternoon when his Glid-ten Bear nine meets Webb's California Alumni team at the new diamond on southwest field, Ellisworth street and Allston Way, Berkeley. The game is scheduled for 2 o'clock. No admission will be charged.

The tilt marks the opening of a 25-game schedule, including 15 league games, for the California nine. The alumni team, usually composed of some of the best players who have graduated from the Berkeley Institution and who live in the bay region, traditionally offers the first competition of each season. This year's team is reputed to be exceptionally strong, and the Bears expect to have a battle on their hands.

Work on the new diamond was completed last week and bleachers are expected to be in place for Saturday's game.

BEARS ENROUTE FOR TROJAN CAGE TITLE

BERKELEY, Jan. 30.—Hopeful of climbing one notch higher in the conference scale, a fifteen-man squad of University of California basketball players will leave for southern California tonight to meet the Trojans of U. S. C. Friday night at the Shrine Auditorium, in Los Angeles.

The Golden Bears will leave first and Broadway station, Oakland, at 8:52 o'clock on the "Pac-die" arriving in the southern city the following morning. The cagers will go direct to the Mayfair hotel, and in the late morning will go out to the auditorium to limber up after the train ride.

The squad will be selected, in all probability, from a group of 15 men. Joel Coffield, the "hard luck man," of the California team this season may be left at home because of his latest injury. Coffield's neck is sore and practically immovable as a result of a strain sustained in practice. Coach C. M. "Nibs" Price considers him too valuable a player to leave at home unless it is absolutely necessary to do so. If Coffield is able to make the trip, one of the other men will be eliminated.

The squad: Forwards, Kent Pursel, Wilson Tripp, Walter Weber, Clarence Granger, Eugene Gregerson, Joseph Kintana and Willis Neilson.

Centers: Captain Perry Ten Eyck and Edwin Warhurst.

Guards: William Davis, Carl Vondt, Ralph Stone, Robert Bartlett, Joel Coffield, Richard Scarlett and Homer Koutz.

Price's problem in picking his squad is further complicated by the fact that he contemplates a cut either just before the Bears leave or immediately after their return from the sunny south. Accordingly his list is supplemented by a group of alternates, any one of whom may displace squad members named above. Matters will be very much up in the air until just before train time.

The alternates are: Forwards, Francis Smart, Weston Gorman; guards, Roscoe Peart, Ralph Field and Russell Avery.

In an effort to sift over his material in the best way possible, Price last night took a ten-man squad north to St. Helena to play a four team. The men making the trip were forwards, Weber, Granger, Gregerson, Kintana.

Center, Warhurst; guards, Stone, Koutz, Bartlett, Coffield, Scarlett and Fiffeld.

The Bears will have to put their best foot forward against the Trojans, for the outcome of the set-to is very likely to be decisive as far as either team is concerned in the race for conference honors. The men of Troy have stubbornly held to second place, while the Bears have inched up from the bottom of the conference scheme of things to wrest third place from Stanford. If the Bears are successful Friday night it will very likely mean that they will fortify their position in the conference struggle, while if Cal southerners win, the Bears will find themselves outside looking in while the other three teams in the southern division skirmish for the honors.

Pursel Leads Bear Forwards

BERKELEY, Jan. 30.—Kent Pursel, veteran forward of the University of California basketball team gained 10 points on his lead in scoring for the season when the Bear team met the Santa Clara five at Oakland auditorium. Pursel has accounted for a total of 89 points in 10 games, and has held the lead in scoring since the opening of the season.

Wilson Tripp, forward, maintained his grip on second place, adding five points to bring his total to 71 for the season. Captain Perry Ten Eyck remains in third place with 35 points, two of which were made against the Broncos.

Tennis Squad Formed At High

A snappy aggregation of high school athletes of the local tennis courts is being organized at Richmond Union high school under the direction of Clifford Fallon, veteran member of the Richmond Union high school tennis team.

Several former players on the high school squad are expected to return to its ranks, including Melvin Avila and Cliff Fallon, Phil Carlin and Jimmy Hurley are among the newcomers from the junior high schools, and are expected to add considerable strength to the high school team.

STATE QUIZ IN RACE RIOT OPENS

but pleaded for calmness and recognized the desire of many Californians for national legislation which will bar Filipinos from free entry to California.

"We must remember there is a problem for statesmanship in Washington," the governor said, "that involves calm deliberation. California can help in finding the facts. This we propose to do."

The cause of the rioting, according to Paul Scharrenberg, secretary of the California State Federation of Labor, is competition for work between the islanders and native whites.

10-Year Problem
It was ten years ago, about the time California's agitation against Chinese and Japanese was dying out, that the immigration of Filipinos became a problem.

There were very few of the islanders here in 1920. Now the state's Filipino population is estimated to be in excess of 30,000. Scharrenberg charges that the Filipinos work on farms and as waiters in the cities for less money than is demanded by the native whites. He brands the heavy Filipino immigration as "another tide of cheap labor coming from across the Pacific."

When work was plentiful, laboring men report, there was little or no ill-feeling against the islanders. It was with the pinch of unemployment, in many communities, that white laborers developed strong racial prejudices.

Contenting they had as much right in the "mother country" as any one else, the islanders struck back, and a general fight, in many instances, was the result.

Mixed Bouts Banned
In San Francisco the only result of the riots is that mixed prize fights between Filipinos and whites have been banned by the California Athletic commission. This order was challenged, however, by Charles F. Traugott, local commissioner, who said the commission had no authority to issue such an order and that Filipinos may be matched here provided the rings are guarded by police. There is no doubt that the California Federation of Labor, of which Scharrenberg is a recognized leader, will ask that Filipinos be placed under an immigration ban. The Commonwealth club of San Francisco and numerous interior chambers of commerce probably will join with the federation in the request.

Fraternity Has Session At Carquinez

The Hotel Carquinez was the setting for the third annual banquet of the past masters of Alpha Chi chapter of Kappa Alpha Pi, national fraternity, last night.

Officers of the grand lodge present included: Duncan Silverfield, grand master, of Santa Rosa; Al Deering, of Newark N. J., grand regent; Seaton Mitchell of Santa Rosa, grand corresponding secretary; and Walter Goerker of San Francisco, grand treasurer.

All of the past masters of the lodge were present, as well as many members from other chapters.

Alex Paulsen, master of Alpha Chi chapter, was master of ceremonies.

Troop No. 10 Will Attend Winter Camp

A number of events were planned at a patrol leader's conference of Troop No. 10, Richmond Boy Scouts, last night in the Scout hall.

It is planned to take all of the boys who pass their merit tests to the snow camp to be held at Long Barn on Feb. 22.

Parent night will be held by the boys on Feb. 13 at the Scout hall. There will be a program and banquet.

Several candidates will be initiated at that meeting.

PAINFUL CORNS

Loosen—Lift Out

A little known Japanese herb, the discovery of an eminent German scientist (Dr. Stickle) instantly soothes the corn, callous or wart, then loosens it so that shortly you can lift it right out. This new discovery called "Corn Fly" excites the white blood corpuscles to action and granulates the corn at its root so that it drops out and leaves no trace of scar or soreness.

You will also find "Corn Fly Foot Bath Powder" a boon for sore, tired or perspiring feet.

"Corn Fly" for corns, 35c; "Corn Fly Foot Bath Powder" 25c; and "Corn Fly Bunion Remedy" 50c, (all three—$1.10 value for $1.00) are sold under a positive money-back guarantee by Hi-Gene Co., Newark, N. J., or local druggist.

and head "muscle man" for a racketeering union, "on the spot." Genaro, whose job it was to force filling stations to pay tribute to his union and to toss bombs at them when they didn't, was shot down with five bullets in his body in front of a south-side restaurant.

Breaks Tradition
In a hospital where he was expected to die tonight, Genaro broke all the ironclad laws of gangland by naming his assailants. He said he was shot by Louis De Luca and Angelo Lucchi, members of a rival racketeering organization. Stark and vicious war between the two gangs now may be expected confidently, police said.

A few hours before Genaro was shot, a bomb described as one of the most powerful ever exploded in Chicago. Lifted the building owned by John Culotta and then dropped it to earth in splinters. It was as if a tornado had ground the structure to bits.

Residents for a block around were thrown from their beds. Thirteen suffered bruises and cuts by flying glass. Concussion of the explosion rocked the area for half a mile about and was heard all over the city.

Culotta said he believed he was the victim of extortioners who recently had demanded that he pay them $5000 "for protection."

Fire Marshal To Address Rotary

The Richmond Rotary club at its meeting in the Hotel Carquinez today will be addressed by State Fire Marshal J. W. Stevens, in observance of fire prevention week. W. P. Cooper, Richmond fire chief, will be chairman of the day.

In addition to being state fire marshal, Stevens is chief of fire prevention of the national board of fire underwriters.

An invitation was received from the Kiwanis club, to attend a meeting on Feb. 5. At this meeting, Charles Howard of Oakland will speak on the community chest.

Carlson Under Knife Yesterday

An operation for removal of a silver plate in his leg, was undergone by Thomas M. Carlson, local attorney at the Providence hospital in Oakland yesterday.

The plate was placed in his leg to support a fractured bone, sustained in an airplane crash during the World war. It recently became infected and the operation resulted.

Reports from the hospital last night, indicated that Carlson was resting easily and progressing favorably.

Mrs. Lindbergh Gets Glider License

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 30.—UP—Judges who witnessed Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh's pilot flight, decided today that she should be given a first class license instead of a second class license as announced previously. Her previous experience in power ships and the fact that she has a power ship license was the reason.

Farm Convention Feature Of L. A. Land Show

Director Horace Dunbar of the California land show, who has as fellow committeemen arranging this event Dr. George P. Clements, agriculture, horticulture and livestock expert of the Los Angeles chamber of commerce, and R. N. Wilson, manager of the agricultural department of the state chamber of commerce, has announced to the California Real Estate association a nearly completed program which shows the importance of this land show auxiliary activity.

Farm labor problems will be discussed; the agricultural committee of the state Bankers association will cooperate in a day devoted to the financial side of agriculture, taxation, farm appraisal and credit the Los Angeles county forestry department will handle the fire prevention subject; livestock and dairy day will be under supervision of William Harriman, superintendent of the Los Angeles county farm, desert farming and its marvelous development, exemplified in the Imperial and Coachella valleys will occupy a day; William R. Tanner will have charge of the day given to the forestry department of the Los Angeles schools; G. H. Hecke, state director of agriculture, has agreed to devote a day to telling of the work of his department; a northern authority, now being selected, will have in hand the desirous fruit situation of the north, and Professor George P. Weldon of Ontario, will act similarly regarding the south; poultry will have a day, soils and pest control have a place on the program fitting their importance; C. B. Moore of the Western Growers Protective association, which ships vast quantities of vegetables to various world markets, will be leader on vegetable day and members of leading crops will be considered.

The program is designed to be of such value as to attract practical farmers to the sessions in large numbers.

Special School Proves Success

A continuation school, held at the Longfellow school, has proved a complete success, according to Mrs. Helen B. Shedd, director of the school.

The idea of the school, according to Mrs. Shedd, is to offer training to pupils who are slightly above the high nine classes and yet unable to do the work of the low ten classes in high school.

Illness caused a great many pupils to lag in the work and they are unable to keep up with their classmates. It is then that the work of the continuation school begins.

Nurse Recovers From Gas Fumes

Miss Ruth McKenzie, nurse in the office of Dr. Francis Kent is reported as recovered from the effects of ammonia fumes inhaled on Jan. 20.

A pipe burst in a store of the Mueller building, where Dr. Kent's offices are, and nearly resulted in the asphyxiation of three persons.

LIONS TOLD TO LEAD HIGH LIVES

"From the Eyebrows Up," was the topic of a speech given by Brother Leo of St. Mary's college in the Hotel Carquinez yesterday noon, before one of the largest crowds that ever attended a service club meeting there.

The luncheon was sponsored by the Richmond Lions club, and invitations were extended to the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, the Business and Professional Women's club, and several other organizations.

Interest in Brother Leo's speech arose to such great heights, that the large dining room of the hotel was overcrowded, and it was necessary to seat late comers in the small adjoining dining room.

Brother Leo's speech, when summed up, consisted of the statement that more contentment, more enjoyment and lasting success would be had by everyone if they lived "from the eyebrows up."

The speaker enlarged his theme with illustrations from history and literature, and with lively humor and bits of eloquence, proved to the gathering that the prolonged applause following his talk was well bestowed.

Brother Leo insisted that men and women, intent on business alone, or gathering their culture from scanty light reading, missed the greatest things life had to offer.

The Lions club orchestra provided musical numbers during the meeting.

Two Conferences For Farm Division

The farm lands division of the California Real Estate association headed by Oscar O. Reed, Fresno, has scheduled two conferences to open up the year's activities.

The first conference will be held at Fresno on Feb. 11. An all day session will include talks by leading authorities, with discussion by the delegate at large. The evening dinner will feature industry.

President W. H. Daum of the state association, widely known industrial analyst, will be the speaker. Another state farm conference will be held at the Los Angeles Realty Board on March 15, during the California land show. A San Joaquin valley good will excursion under auspices of the Fresno chamber of commerce, will leave the day before, stopping at valley points, and arriving in time to attend the conference and land show in a body.

Miss L. Oakley Injures Head

Following a severe injury to her head from a recent fall, Miss Laura Oakley was resting yesterday at her home at 453 Eighth street. Miss Oakley was in her kitchen when she fell.

She was taken to the office of Dr. J. B. Spalding, where it was found that a blood vessel had been punctured, causing considerable loss of blood.
